

A photograph of an outdoor lounge area. In the foreground, two bright orange, curved lounge chairs are positioned on a stone-tiled patio. A small orange table with a drink sits between them. In the background, there are several pieces of outdoor furniture, including sofas and armchairs with patterned cushions, and a wooden deck. The area is enclosed by a light-colored wooden slat wall and a white pergola structure. The background shows a tropical landscape with palm trees and a blue sky.
