

The background image shows a modern outdoor lounge area. In the foreground, two bright orange, curved lounge chairs are positioned on a stone-tiled patio. A small orange table with a drink sits between them. In the background, there are several modular sofas and armchairs with yellow and white patterned cushions, arranged on a wooden deck. The area is enclosed by a light-colored wooden slat fence, and a pergola structure is visible above. The background features lush tropical greenery and a glimpse of the ocean under a clear blue sky.
